CHILDREN'S HOME®

ESTABLISHED 1908

THE HERALD

WINTER 2017

VOLUME 27/NO. 1

To empower children and families to experience
God's love as revealed in the ministry of Jesus Christ.

A word FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Kitwana McTyer
President & CEO
Florida United Methodist Children's Home

It is hard to believe that 2017 is already here. As I reflect on 2016, I can't help but think about some of the positive transitions that have occurred this past year. In June, we saw seven members of our Board of Trustees transition from their position with us as their terms ended, and they went on to pursue other career occupations or philanthropic service endeavors. In their place, we seated seven new members to our Board, representing a diverse and talented group of individuals who are passionate about this ministry.

The Children's Home has also seen new additions to our team, adding professionals with varied perspectives and experiences at all levels. This unique blend of Trustees and key personnel has made us stronger by giving us the ability to leverage the diverse attributes of each, which gives us the ability to adapt to any future changes in child welfare. We have an awesome team from top to bottom that's ready for anything!

Through these transitions and additions, we have retained our sense of mission, our focus on ministry, and we are embracing the new strengths, ideas, and abilities brought by the new Trustees and team members. This reminds me of one of my favorite verses, Proverbs 27:17, "Iron sharpens iron, one man sharpens another." I feel truly honored to be working with such a great team. Perhaps the greatest honor for me was to be named President and CEO in December. As I lead our team into 2017, I thought I would update you on a few of the things that sit on the horizon:

- We are scheduled and on track to commence the construction of three projects in the coming year. The first is the new Early Childhood Education Development Center here on the main campus in Enterprise. It will allow us to better serve preschoolers in our community, as well as expand our after school program. Additional construction projects are also planned for the Madison Youth Ranch. These include the Counseling and Support Services building as well as a chapel.
- During this year, we will be implementing an evidence based residential model of care throughout our residential and foster care ministries. Known as the Teaching Family Model, it is a cognitive behavior model that is based on the belief that much of the behaviors people display are learned. Behavioral issues often stem from a lack of interpersonal relationships and skills. By providing positive, caring relationships with our young people and teaching them new skills, behavioral issues can be overcome and new behaviors learned.
- Since I previously served as the Chief Operating Officer here at the Children's Home, we will be hiring a replacement for that position during the first quarter of this year.

As we move into this new year, I ask that you continue to pray for the Children's Home. Pray for our youth, our ministry, and our friends. Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Kitwana McTyer
President & CEO
Florida United Methodist Children's Home

Our annual Santa's Workshop event on both the Enterprise and Madison campuses was a huge success. Groups from all over the state came to provide crafts that our children could make and then give to loved ones as gifts. A special thank you to all those who attended and gave of their time and resources to provide our residents with an opportunity to create and give something special to those they love.

Creating a special Christmas gift.

DAY ON CAMPUS

Coming April 1

On April 1, we will be hosting our annual Day On Campus in Enterprise. The special guests for this event will be the Gulf Central and South Central Districts. But of course, any of our friends can attend! Day on Campus is our way of saying thank you to the United Methodist Churches and many friends who support the Children's Home with their generous gifts throughout the year. CHILDREN'S HOME ACHIEVING

Excellence In Care

The top priority for us at the Florida United Methodist Children's Home is the quality of care we provide for our children. Nothing is more important to us than making sure the children feel safe and loved, and providing them with what they need to become successful. One way to demonstrate excellence in quality care is by third party accreditation, and our credentials are certainly noteworthy.

One of the national accreditations that we achieved is through the New York-based Council on Accreditation (COA). As part of the accreditation process, COA evaluated all aspects of the programs, services, management, and administration of the Children's Home.

COA accreditation is an objective, independent, and reliable validation of an agency's performance. The standards driving accreditation ensure that services are well-coordinated, culturally competent, evidence-based, outcomes-oriented, and are provided by a skilled and supported workforce. COA accreditation demonstrates accountability in the management of resources, sets standardized best practice thresholds for service and administration, and increases organizational capacity and accountability by creating a framework for ongoing quality improvement.

To achieve COA accreditation, the Children's Home first provided written evidence of compliance with the COA standards. Thereafter, a group of specially trained volunteer Peer Reviewers confirmed adherence to these standards during a series of on-site interviews.

How important is an endorsement from COA? It is recognized by the US State Department as the only national independent accrediting body to accredit

EAGLE ACCREDITATION HAS THREE MAJOR COMPONENTS.

- 1. SELF STUDY: An internal analysis was conducted by the Children's Home using the EAGLE manual.
- 2. PEER REVIEW SITE VISIT: Next, a two-step peer review was conducted by a select team of trained reviewers, who are experienced executives and representatives from human service organizations and denominational sponsors.
- 3. COMMISSION DECISION: After the peer review was successfully completed, we received the final report with a listing of commendations and opportunities to improve.

intercountry adoption service providers. In addition, COA is the only national accreditor designated by the U.S. Department of Defense to develop accreditation standards and processes for human service programs provided to military personnel and their families.

In addition to receiving accreditation from COA, the Children's Home has been recognized as a premier member of the list of faith-based, EAGLE accredited organizations, and has been reaccredited through the year 2020.

Educational Assessment Guidelines Leading toward Excellence (EAGLE), an accrediting body under the United Methodist Association Health and Welfare Ministries, is the only faith-based accrediting body in the world and focuses on ministries with older adults and children. Their goal is to recognize organizations that voluntarily go beyond the minimum requirements of licensure to improve operational processes and outcomes.

Becoming COA and EAGLE accredited has helped us to improve processes and outcomes in key areas of care, as well as making us better stewards of your gifts. In the end, it all translates into better care for our children.

A Conversation WITH DOROTHY SCHNABEL

Dorothy has been a friend of the Florida United Methodist Children's Home for 27 years, and is also a member of our Legacy Circle. The Legacy Circle is an exclusive program that was established to recognize our friends whose testamentary gifts have become their "legacy" in support of the mission and ministry at the Children's Home.

I first heard about the Florida United Methodist Children's Home in 1989 when I attended St. John's United Methodist Church. I recognized then that the Children's Home fulfilled a need for many children who did not have a parent or other responsible adult to care for them, and who often had an emotional or physical need for stability and safety. This really hit home with me because of my personal experience with my nephew. He came to live with me at age twelve because of his single mother's illness and her inability to care for him. He was failing in school as well as emotional and physical problems. I was able to provide a stable and loving environment, despite many personal challenges. While I had a responsible career, I was also single, had no children of my own, and lived a hundred miles from his mother (my sister).

Within a year, my nephew greatly improved in school, became an honor student, and overcame his physical issues. A Christian home like the Florida United Methodist Children's Home would have been a true blessing to my sister and nephew. Because of my experience, I thought about all those children who don't have the option to live with family. What would happen to them?

It is a good feeling to know that my gift will help to provide care for the physical and emotional needs of a hurting child, like my nephew, and do so in a Christian environment. The Children's Home gives hope to children and young people as well as a feeling of self-worth. And the Independent Living program there helps graduating teen residents transition into responsible adults, benefiting the youth and the community.

My planned giving is mostly for Christian organizations that help children and youth to better their life circumstances and develop their potential to become responsible and contributing members of society. And that's exactly what the Florida United Methodist Children's Home does.

ROLLOVER YOUR IRA FOR GOOD

By taking a distribution from your IRA this year, you will likely pay more in taxes and may even reach a higher tax bracket. Rolling over part of your IRA's "required minimum distribution" or "RMD" to a charity like the Florida United Methodist Children's Home can help reduce your tax bill while supporting the children.

If you are 70 ½ or older and don't need your RMD, you can make a gift directly from your IRA account of up to $100,000, to the Children's Home or similar organization. Compare the impact of taking your RMD versus the benefits of making an IRA charitable rollover gift to the Children's Home:

Taking Your RMD

- You pay income tax on your distribution
- You may not need or want the income at this time
- Your tax dollars go to Washington
- You are limited by the RMD rules

Making an IRA Gift

- You will pay no income tax on your gift
- You can help support the children here at the Children's Home
- Your gift can help build your charitable legacy
- You can use your IRA in the way you want

An IRA charitable rollover gift can benefit both you and the Children's Home! Contact your IRA administrator to get started with your gift. While you will not receive an income tax deduction, you will not pay taxes on any distributions made to us. Please inform us of your plans so that we use your gift for the causes that mean the most to you.

RUN 4 LIFE, COMING MAY 20TH

The Run 4 Life 4 Miler begins and ends on the campus of the Florida United Methodist Children's Home in historic Enterprise, Florida. The 4 mile course is on magnificent oak canopy roads along the shore of Lake Monroe. It is one of the most uniquely beautiful areas and race courses in Central Florida. All race proceeds benefit the Children's Home and other local suicide prevention programs. To register, visit <https://runsignup.com/Race/FL/Enterprise/Run4Life4Miler>.
