Enterprise, FL – The Margarita Society of Volusia County donated 170 gifts to the Florida United Methodist Children’s Home as part of the annual toy drive they do in conjunction with their Margarita Ball. The Margarita Society is a 501(c)(3) non-profit charitable organization who provides gifts at Christmas time for at-risk children. Additionally, they work with organizations who work with at-risk children throughout the year. The gifts will be part of the total Christmas gifts received by the children who live on at the Children’s Home Enterprise campus and Madison Youth Ranch. It will also help provide gifts for the foster children that are cared for in five counties by the Children’s Home.
