VOLUME 31/NO. 1

Empowering children and families to experience the transforming love of Christ through wholistic care.

A word FROM PASTORAL CARE

Rev. Madeline Luzinski
Director of Pastoral Care
Florida United Methodist Children's Home

The past year has been unique for all pastors, churches, and people of faith as we sought new ways to gather, worship, and serve. Many of those new ways of being together have revolved around our individual households. It is a great joy to be part of a household as big as the Florida United Methodist Children's Home. We have many children living together on both campuses and that made our circumstances for gathering together unique.

Our Spiritual Life Team in LEGO form.

Our primary goal in the Spiritual Life department is to foster opportunities for the youth in our care to experience God in a tangible way through worship, service, and fellowship. One of the ways we do this is by creating diverse, interactive, as well as fun worship and activities in which our youth participate. The chapel team is constantly listening to our youth, getting to know them, and innovating new ways to provide spiritual care that will meet the needs of our youth where they are while they are with us.

We have held worship services outside in our grassy fields, delighting in the beauty of God's good creation. We acted out the story of Jesus's birth and sang Silent Night under the sheltering branches of one of the oldest oak trees on campus. We have gathered in our Gymnasium so we could social distance while together and baptized youth who wanted a new life and to be part of God's family. We prerecorded worship for the youth to watch in their cottages on Sunday. We even made an entire animated worship service with LEGOs! Eventually we made our way back into our chapel in smaller groups that have allowed for more intimate worship and conversation. Youth group meetings with games, laughter, and lessons continued in each of these spaces as well. We have served one another. We have served our community through our Day of Service, doing everything from washing windows, to pulling weeds, and painting parking lots. Our youth have been reminded that they are the hands and feet of Christ and are uniquely gifted to help build God's kingdom here on earth.

In all of these places and spaces and new ways of being together, what has not changed is God's presence and movement of the Holy Spirit in each of our lives. Thanks be to God!

CHILDREN PARTICIPATE IN A DAY OF SERVICE

While our youth were out of school for President's Day they were busy serving others in our community. The Day Of Service is organized by our Spiritual Life team. This event shows the children that they can have a positive impact on the community by helping others while having a little fun at the same time.

Teams were created with staff and youth in each, and then sent to various locations to serve that included:

- Community United Methodist Church to paint parking stripes in their lot,
- Harvest Time International to assist with sorting and folding donated linens,
- All Saints Episcopal Church to trim crepe myrtles, and
- Orange City United Methodist Church for some weeding and painting.

"We think it's wonderful to provide our youth the opportunity to serve others, proving to them just how much impact they can have on the community. They always enjoy the Day Of Service and return to campus asking when they can do it again," said Rev. Luzinski.

Our youth had a great time helping those organizations and we're very proud of them for stepping up.

ANOTHER CHILDREN'S HOME SUCCESS

a conversation with michelle caudell

Michelle Caudell had a very rough childhood prior to coming to the Children's Home. She entered the foster care system at the age of three, living with foster families, friends, and distant relatives. Michelle estimates that she moved a dozen times before coming to the Children's Home at fifteen.

"I was placed at the Children's Home at fifteen, during my sophomore year of high school. It was a huge shock for me. Everyone was very nice to me. And even though I was scared, I was excited because I was hoping that this would mean that I wouldn't have to move again."

"Adjusting to life at the Children's Home was a little difficult. Prior to that time, I didn't have parents. It's true I had people watching over me, but no one was teaching or guiding me through life. I'll admit that I wasn't an easy teenager and having someone tell me what to do just didn't seem fair at the time. But no matter how much I pushed, they never gave up on me. It was at that point I realized that I had two options – I could be mad at the world for the life I was given or I could let everyone at the Children's Home help to make the most of it. So I went with the second option!"

"My house parents helped me to participate in sports and join all the clubs that I wanted to while attending the local high school. I was active in student government and the math club. I took SAT prep classes in anticipation of college, and was even able to run for homecoming queen! My house parents also supported me with finding a part-time job, guided me in saving money, and did a monthly check-in to see how my savings were growing. They were helping me become responsible and preparing me to be independent."

“When I turned 18, I was technically too old for the system. Luckily for me, the Children’s Home had an Independent Living program for youth 18-26 years of age. I moved into the Independent Living cottage during my senior year of high school. I remember coming home in the evening after work and sitting down at the kitchen table with a couple other youth to do our homework. The house parents were fluent in Spanish, and they would help us with our Spanish homework. We had the best time laughing at each other as we tried to learn how to pronounce basic words. Because of the support from my house parents, I made it all the way to Spanish 3 and earned an A.”

“After graduating high school I moved to Gainesville to earn my college degree, and then moved to Daytona to begin my professional career. I’m now a successful Commercial Insurance Advisor. But I also learned from the Children’s Home that it’s important to help others. So I sit on the board for a handful of local nonprofit organizations and average about 250 hours of volunteer work each year.”

“If you’ve supported or given to the Children’s Home and wondered if you were making a difference, the answer is yes! I was given so many opportunities because of the support of the friends and donors who gave. Whether I needed school supplies, athletic gear, or a tutor, the Children’s home was able to provide it. If not for that support, I would have been homeless for sure.”

BLENDED GIFTS

The Ultimate Giving Experience

So many times in life, you might think that you have to choose between two alternatives, like two different cups of coffee. When making a gift to support the causes you care about, you might believe that you either have to choose between making a sizable gift today, so you can receive any up-front tax benefits and see firsthand the result of your gift, or holding off on making your intended gift until much later when you know you won't need that particular asset.

There is actually a way to receive the advantages of both kinds of gifts—we call these blended gifts.

With the first option, you would receive up-front tax benefits and see your gift at work. With the second, you maintain the flexibility in the event of unanticipated needs. Similar to finding your perfect coffee blend, there is a way to blend your personal philanthropy that is right for you.

The idea is that you make a starting gift with a current gift of cash, securities or real estate. Then you find the planned gift method, maybe a bequest or a charitable trust, that works best for your situation. With the planned gift, you set it up now and enjoy the benefits and security during your lifetime, and you get the satisfaction of knowing your planned gift will make a big difference by adding to the gift you already started.
