“He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more. There will be no mourning, crying, or pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.”<sup>5</sup> Then the one seated on the throne said, “Look! I’m making all things new.” He also said, “Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true.” Revelation 21:4-5 (CEB)

Kaylee came into our care after experiencing sexual abuse in her home. When she arrived at the Children’s Home, she often acted out in response to her trauma. However, her houseparents noticed an extreme shift in Kaylee after a few short months in care. In fact, her tantrums drastically diminished. Through her work with her therapist and the Spiritual Life team, she is beginning to believe in herself. She recently made the A/B honor roll at Legacy Scholars Academy. Kaylee hopes to attend college, after which she would like to get married and have children of her own.

At the Florida United Methodist Children’s Home, we get to witness countless examples of God’s transformative love in the lives of children. Through the foundations of trust and healing built at the Children’s Home, these youth have come to know that God had never left them, but instead has a bright future in store.
