Children's Home Students Display Art At Enterprise Museum

Enterprise, FL – Students from Legacy Scholars Academy on the campus of the Florida United Methodist Children's Home were invited by the Enterprise Museum to display multiple pieces of art. This is the second year in a row that the students were invited to display their work. Pieces were submitted by artists ranging from sixth to twelfth grade and with a range of skill levels. Various mediums included acrylic and watercolor paintings and three-dimensional sculptures.

The art program at the Children's Home in that it allows the children to recognize past trauma and describe the impact of that trauma on their feelings. Through this process, the children are able to express their feelings through art.

The Florida United Methodist Children's Home was established in 1908 in Enterprise, Florida on the banks of Lake Monroe. The Madison Youth Ranch, a second residential location, was added in 2014 in North Florida. The Children's Home provides services to families and children from childhood to adulthood, and is accredited by COA (Council on Accreditation), EAGLE (a program of the United Methodist Association of Health and Welfare Ministries), and is a member of the Alliance for Children and Families. Our Residential Care Program provides care and a family style home for school-aged children who have been victimized by abuse, neglect or family trauma, and provides education, counseling, as well as recreation and ministry opportunities. The Children's Home also provides Foster Care, an Emergency Shelter, an Independent Living Program as well as a Montessori-based early childhood program to the public through In As Much. The Children's Home is supported through the generosity of churches with the United Methodist Florida Conference, individuals and legacy gifts. For more information, visit www.fumch.org.
